

Filing of your personal data

The data the Authority may keep on record are regularly forwarded to the Danish National Archives in accordance with the rules of the Danish Archives Act and the provisions laid down by the Danish National Archives. Data we receive that are not subject to the Authority's duty to keep records will be deleted when we no longer need them.

Your rights

According to the Data Protection Regulation, you have a number of rights regarding our processing of your personal data by us. If you want to exercise your rights, please contact us.

Right to see your data

You have the right to see the data we process on you (the right of access to documents), or to apply for access to documents.

Right of correction

You have the right to have incorrect data on you corrected.

Right of deletion

In special circumstances, you have the right to have data we have on you deleted before the date on which we generally delete data. This only applies to data which we are not obliged to record.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency's guide to data subject rights at www.datatilsynet.dk.

Complaints to the Danish Data Protection Agency

You have the right to complain to the Danish Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the manner in which we process your personal data. You can find the Agency's contact details at www.datatilsynet.dk.
